Agreement to TRS 92 Policies and Procedures – Winter 2013

Listed below are the most important policies and procedures that you need to be aware of for TRS 92. You will initial in the blank following each bullet indicating that you are aware of and understand each item. I will keep this document on file for the semester in case any questions or issues arise concerning these items.

- You are allowed SIX absences for the semester. After that, you will receive an F for this course. There is no difference between an excused absence and an unexcused absence. _______

- If you miss class, you may not make up any of the work that you missed. Late work will not be accepted even if you missed the previous class. If you know that you’re going to miss a class(es), you may talk to me ahead of time to make arrangements to hand work in early, before the absence. _______

- THREE tardies or early departures from class may equal ONE absence. It is very important that you are on-time to class and participate until the end of class. _______

- Wearing headphones, whether listening to music or not, allowing your cell phone to ring, text messaging during class and other such activities are disrespectful to your class. Please take care of these things before or after class. _______

- The last day to receive a W for this course is Friday, March 1st. After this date, dropping the course will result in an F. _______

- If you have exceeded the absence limit, you may not withdraw from the course with a W. _______

- The final exam will be held on Wednesday, April 24th. Do not plan to leave town before then as there are no make-ups of the final exam. _______

- Extra credit, class announcements, or schedule changes may be sent via email. Therefore, it is very important that you check your FLC email regularly to receive these emails in a timely manner. _______

- Your overall grade is broken down as follows. There are no exceptions to this distribution. _______

- You are encouraged to work together, form your own study groups, and seek help from your instructor or tutors in the Algebra Alcove. However, you must always remember that you must do your own work on all exams and on all writing assignments. It is alright to get help with the ‘math’, but all writing should be your OWN. If anyone is caught cheating or plagiarizing, you may automatically fail the assignment and/or course and may be referred to the Academic Vice President for additional sanctions. _______
